

Karen J. Killawee, LL.B., Q. Med

902.897.2000
kkillawee@pattersonlaw.ca

Assistant: Kenda Onda
902.896.6119
konda@pattersonlaw.ca

Primary Office: Truro

Biography

Karen Killawee has focused on family law and civil litigation for more than 15 years. While a skilled litigator, Karen is also a fully trained collaborative lawyer and a qualified mediator, tools she uses to help clients navigate more smoothly and efficiently through separation and divorce. Karen is active in her community, sitting on the Board of Directors of the Dismas Society and Admissions Committee for Lavers House.

Experience

- Karen has extensive experience representing children and youths in child protection matters, is a skilled courtroom advocate and negotiator and strives to provide dignified, cost effective solutions to conflicts arising from separation and divorce.

Recognition

- Best Lawyers in Canada: recognized for Family Law since 2018

Associations and Memberships

- Nova Scotia Barristers` Society
- Canadian Bar Association

Community Involvement

- Nova Scotia Barristers` Society
- Canadian Bar Association

Education and Bar Admissions

- Bar Admission: Nova Scotia, 1998
- LL.B. (University of New Brunswick, 1997)
- B.A. (Dalhousie University, 1993)

Areas of Law

Family and Divorce Law
Child Protection Law
Collaborative Family Law
Arbitration and Mediation
Residential Real Estate
Estate Planning, Wills and Trusts